Summary of lecture -More Lagrange multipliers

- Formulate the problem carefully, always be sure you know what is being maximised/minimised and what is the constraint.

- Be aware that the function may have more than one maximum and minimum that satisfies the constraint. You may have to decide which value of (x, y), obtained from the Lagrange multiplier method, is the one that you are interested in.